CHENNAI, OCT 3

Observing that the stampede at the Karur election rally of the Tamilaga Vetri Kazhagam (TVK) on Saturday was a man-made disaster, the Madras High Court expressed anguish over police inaction against the party president Vijay pointing out that he had fled the scene and ordered the constitution of a Special Investigation Team (SIT) headed by Inspector General of Police Asra Garg to probe in tragedy.

Hearing a batch of petitions filed by different persons, including a party functionary, Satheesh, against whom a case has been filed, Justice N Senthilkumar said that Vijay lacked leadership qualities.

Madras High Court expressed anguish over police inaction against party president Vijay and ordered the constitution of a Special Investigation Team (SIT) headed by Inspector General of Police Asra Garg to probe in the tragedy.

It was agonising for him as a judge to see the death of 41 people in the stampede and asked the police what they had done so far but for arresting just two people, Senthilkumar said.

When the entire world had witnessed the unfortunate incident and everyone, right from the President of India and Prime Minister, had condoned the loss of lives, the police action did not appear to be adequate, Justice Senthilkumar said, raising a plethora of questions against the police.

No mercy could be shown to the organisers, who had violated most of the conditions laid out to them, and the TVK vehicle could have been seized, the judge said.

It was agonising for him as a judge to see the death of 41 people in the stampede and asked the police what they had done so far but for arresting just two people.

The judge also asked why the police had not issued any notice to the TVK since an uncontrolled mob indulged in all kinds of activities and what prevented the party from taking precautionary measures at the rally in Karur

BJP's selective attention on Karur incident for political gains: Stalin

CHENNAI: Chief Minister MK Stalin hit out at the BJP, attributing motives behind its sending a delegation of MPs from the NDA to Karur, jumping out that the State was through multiple tragedies in the past without any affiliation party's team heading to help or find facts.

Stalin said that the BJP sent the delegation out of the blue and wondered why it got special attention, when it chose to visit a place for the first time since 2021. Stalin questioned what is the reason for visiting Karur, when the state was through a tough struggle with such urgency to Karur, when the past, he said, "BJP did not send such delegation, with such urgency to Karur, when they had lapsed, as times, tragedy struck in the past, he said. Stalin questions BJP's intention

Chief Minister MK Stalin questioned the intention of a delegation of MPs from the NDA visiting Karur in the aftermath of the stampede. Stalin said the BJP sent a delegation out of the blue, wondered why it got special attention only when it chose to visit a place for the first time since 2021. Stalin said the BJP has a habit of riding on someone else's political mileage for the 2026 State Assembly elections. "Why are such delegations or no such delegations to the Kumbh Mela stampede, Karur, the Jallikattu protest?" he asked.

BJP has a habit of riding on someone else's back. Jallikattu protest, Kumbh Mela, Karur, the Jallikattu protest, Kumbh Mela, Karur, the Jallikattu protest, Kumbh Mela, Karur, the
