SC clarity on governor's role good for democracy

The Supreme Court ruling which insists that the governor acts as the will and voice of the citizens of Maharashtra and not merely as a puppet under the thumb of the state government, is a landmark decision that will strengthen the role of the governor in the state government.

Referring to the governor's role, the court said that the governor is not a mere figurehead but a person who represents the people of the state. The court also said that the governor is not a puppet of the state government but a person who acts on behalf of the people.
